BEST OF SUMMIT 2016 AWARDS ANNOUNCED

Pinnacle Design Studio Voted #1 Interior Design Company in Summit County

FRISCO, CO. October 21, 2016 —Pinnacle Design Studio (PDS) has been voted #1 Interior Design Company in Best of Summit 2016. With over 12 interior design companies in Summit County, PDS welcomes the accolade in its first six months of business and thanks all those who voted for Pinnacle Design Studio. With over 14 design projects in progress, the company is off to an outstanding start and is looking forward to the future.

In July, over 3000 people cast their votes for their favorite businesses in Summit County. Pinnacle Design Studio was chosen from 11 entrants in the Interior Design category. "It's no small feat to be voted #1 in this category. Having opened our showroom this summer, we're encouraged by the initial response from Pinnacle Mountain Homes, other Summit County builders and Summit County homeowners who are looking for a modern design alternative", said Johanna Serino, Lead Interior Designer.

Pinnacle Design Studio opened its 2,000 s.f. studio and showroom at 730 N. Summit Blvd in Frisco; it showcases vignettes of mountain modern furnishings. It is a creative space where interior designers meet with homeowners and bring what they envision to reality.

"Discovering the style and design that gives a home life is a deeply personal process, our interior designers guide our clients through this with care and inspiration," says Jeff Scroggins, Managing Director of Pinnacle Design Studio. Offering interior design services from space planning to furnishings & accessories, the team works with luxury mountain homeowners who are exploring progressive and modern styles.
